JEWISH FAST FOR GAZA

DIGNITY UNDER SEIGE

An evening of Interfaith Reflection, Conversation and Action on Behalf of the Citizens of Gaza

Featured Speaker: Mark Braverman

Trained in clinical psychology and crisis management, Mark Braverman is a longtime advocate for peace and justice in Israel/Palestine and works closely with peace activists and civil society leaders from Muslim, Christian and Jewish communities. He is the author of the recently published Fatal Embrace: Christians, Jews, and the Search for Peace in Holy Land.

Thursday, April 15, 7:30 PM

Evanston Galleria

1702 Sherman Avenue, Evanston
(NW corner of Sherman Avenue and Church Street)

The JEWISH FAST FOR GAZA is an ad hoc group of Rabbis, Jews, Christian and Muslim clergy, people of all faiths and people of conscience who have committed to undertake a monthly daytime fast in support of lifting the blockade that prevents the entry of civilian goods and services into Gaza.

Proceeds from the evening's collection will be donated to the Milk for Preschoolers of American Near Eastern Refugee Aid (ANERA), a relief campaign that combats malnutrition among Gazan preschool children.
