Author Mark Braverman addresses the Jewish quest for safety and empowerment as well as the Christian mission to atone for centuries of anti-Semitism — and examines how the two have combined to suppress conversations that are urgently needed to bring about a just and lasting peace in the Holy Land. His recent book, Fatal Embrace: Christians, Jews and the Search for Peace in the Holy Land, charts his journey as an American Jew struggling with the difficult realities of modern Israel. Vividly describing the spiritual and psychological forces that drive the discourse, Dr. Braverman turns to the prophets' cry for justice and Jesus' transformative ministry to show the way forward.

Mark Braverman grew up in Philadelphia, steeped in Jewish tradition and culture. Active in synagogue life, he also lived in Israel as a young man. He is Executive Director of Friends of Tent of Nations North America, a non-profit that supports Palestinian land rights. He serves on the Board of Directors of the Israeli Committee Against House Demolitions - USA and on the advisory committee of Friends of Sabeel North America. He is a charter member of American Jews for a Just Peace.

Sponsored by the Peacemaking Committee of the Presbytery of Philadelphia, the Ecumenical Working Group for Middle East Peace, the Catholic Peace Fellowship, Philadelphia Jews for a Just Peace, and Christian-Jewish Allies

“An urgent summons that must be heeded.”
