

Fatal Embrace

with Mark Braverman

Christians, Jews and the Search for Peace in the Holy Land

Sunday, February 5, 2012

3-5 pm

at Montview Boulevard Presbyterian Church
1980 Dahlia, at Montview Boulevard, Park Hill

Mark Braverman is the author of Fatal Embrace: Christians, Jews and the Search for Peace in the Holy Land; he is co-founder and executive director of Friends of Tent of Nations, supporting Palestinian land rights; and a member of the Advisory Board, Friends of Sabeel-North America. In his book, he shows how the Jewish quest for safety and empowerment and the Christian effort to atone for centuries of anti-Semitism have combined to suppress the conversations needed to bring about peace. In his quest to find a way forward, he turns to the prophets and to Jesus's transformative ministry, to speak a prophetic word of his own, calling Christians to find other ways to deal with our guilt. Israel needs us to engage in the struggle for justice and peace. Braverman will report on the recent formation of Kairos USA, a grassroots initiative of U.S. Christians to mobilize in support of justice for Palestine and a change in U.S. policy in the region.

Additional appearances for Mark Braverman:

Sunday, Feb. 5: 9:30 am

First Mennonite Church, 430 West 9th Avenue, Denver (303.892.1038)

Monday, Feb. 6: 2:00 pm

University of Colorado-Denver, Prof. Amin Kazak's class: The Arab-Israeli Peace Process—North Classroom 3202

Monday, Feb 6: 7:00 pm

University of Colorado campus, Boulder—Humanities 1B80

►► Next month—Sabeel Film & Lecture Series: Sunday, March 4: Little Town of Bethlehem, a documentary film that tells the stories of three non-violent peace activists—a Christian, a Muslim and a Jew, all working for Palestinian liberation, at Montview Presbyterian.

Free and open to the public—light refreshments served

For more information: www.sabeelcolorado.org

Supported by the Peace & Justice Task Force, Montview Presbyterian